

Application for a director identification number – for people living outside Australia

The fastest way to apply for a director identification number (director ID) is online at abrs.gov.au/directorIDapply.

Use this application form if you are living outside Australia and can't apply online using myGovID.

To prevent processing delays, make sure you answer all questions.

If we can confirm your details with our systems, we'll issue you a director ID and give you the number in writing.

When completing this form:

- answer all questions, otherwise we may need to contact you for more information
- print clearly, using a black or dark blue pen
- use BLOCK LETTERS and print one character in each box
- write an 'X' in all applicable boxes
- don't use correction fluid or covering stickers
- read the privacy statement and sign the declaration at the end of the form
- provide acceptable proof of identity documents – see Section D of this form.

x Penalties apply for providing false or misleading information.

Section A: Tax file number

1 Do you have a tax file number (TFN)?

No Have you applied for a TFN? Yes No

Yes Provide your TFN

! It's not an offence if you don't provide your TFN. However, providing your TFN and the identity documents in Section D will help us verify your identity. The Registrar is authorised by the Corporations Act 2001 and the Corporations (Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander) Act 2006 to request your TFN.

Section B: Application requirements

You can apply for a director ID if you are:

- an eligible officer, or
- intend to become an eligible officer within 12 months after applying.

An eligible officer is an appointed director or alternate director (acting in that capacity) of a company or body corporate that is a registered Australian body or registered foreign company, or an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation.

The Registrar may make a determination that a particular person or class of persons are not eligible officers.

You should not apply for a director ID if you already have an active director ID, unless the Registrar has directed you to.

To be eligible to be a director, you must:

- be an individual
- be at least 18 years old
- not be disqualified from managing corporations unless your appointment is made with the permission of the Australian Securities & Investments Commission (ASIC), Office of the Registrar of Indigenous Corporations (ORIC), or with leave of the Court.

! If you have already applied for and been issued a director ID, and have been asked by the Registrar to reapply, enter your previously issued director ID here and continue to Section C.
